Pentecost Sunday

9 June 2019

The feast of Pentecost brings the season of Easter to a glorious close. Though we hear Luke telling us today that the Spirit was bestowed fifty days after the resurrection, we know that we've already spent the entire Easter season "in the Spirit". The reason for this is made clear by the gospel reading. In John's version of events, Jesus breathed out his Spirit on the disciples on the very day of his resurrection, "the first day of the week". Each writer has a theological perspective that accounts for his particular chronology.

We have not spent the past seven weeks waiting for the Spirit. The feast of Pentecost allows us to cry a final full-hearted "Alleluia!" for all the Spirit has accomplished in us and will continue to do. We pray with fresh fervour the same response to the psalm that followed the story of creation. At the Easter Vigil fifty days ago: "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth".

BISHOP PAUL: this Sunday 9th June will be giving a video homily relating to Pentecost and the future of the parishes in the Christchurch area. At the end of the Mass a pastoral letter will be given to all the people attending. In the evening there will be extra information on the diocesan website, along with links to the homily and other material.
